

Results of the dissemination on Tampere

This survey was made for organisations that joined on Sospeds dissemination event. During the event these organisations got to hear about the project idea, learn how to initiate this kind of project with the help of guidelines made in the end of our project, try exercises that supports the co-design phase and talk about the positive effects that this kind of making can have for wellbeing and mental health.

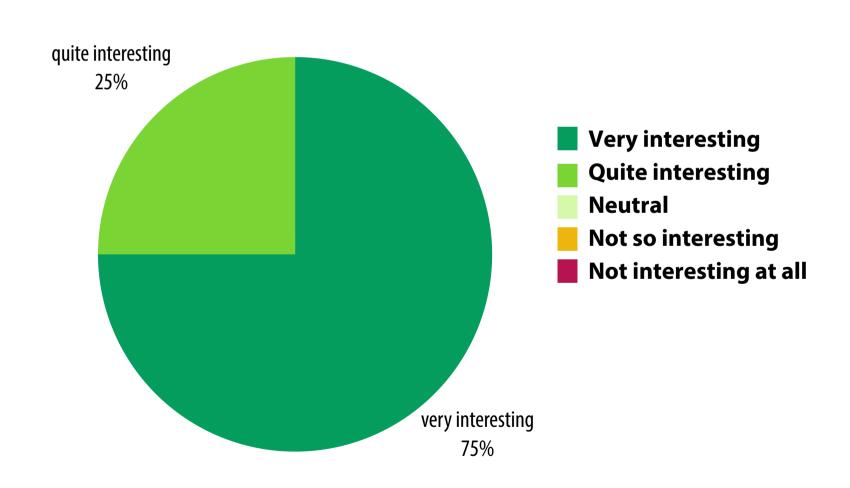

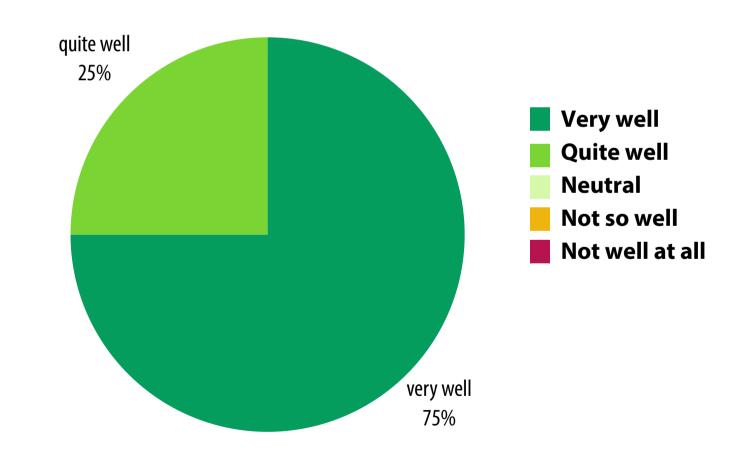

How interesting did you find this project?

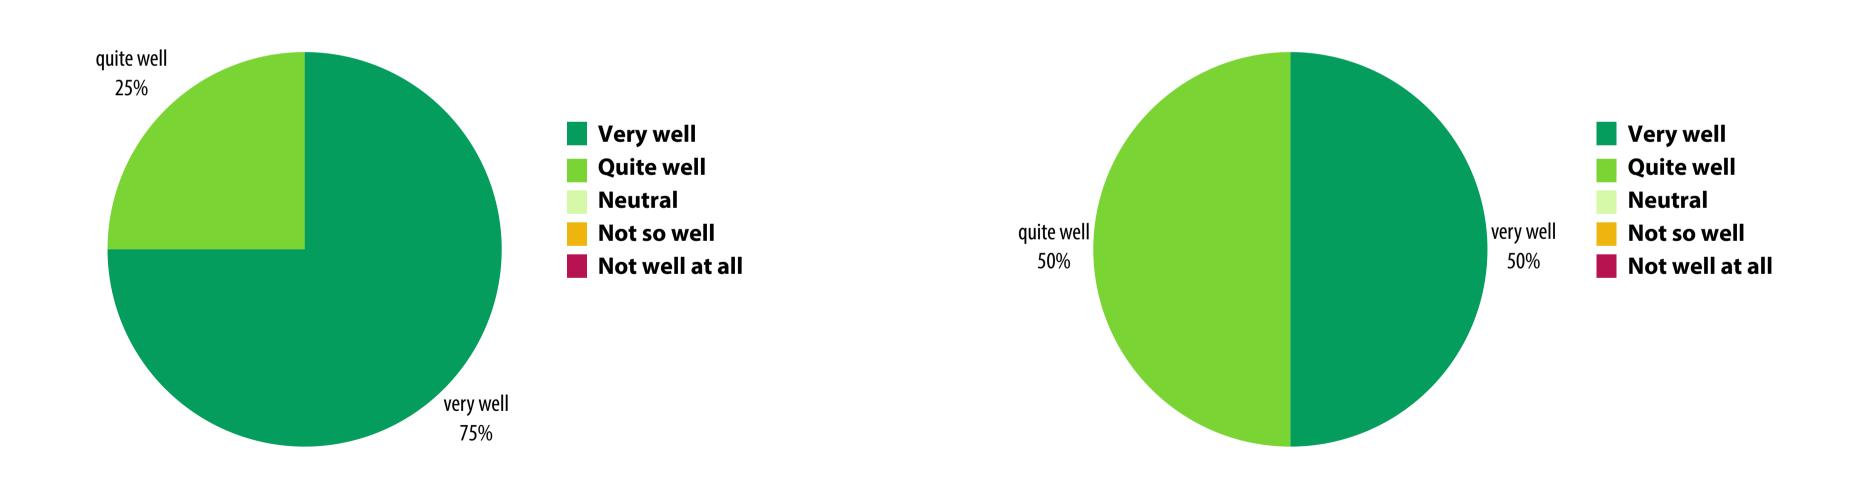

How well do you think we included the youth in this project?

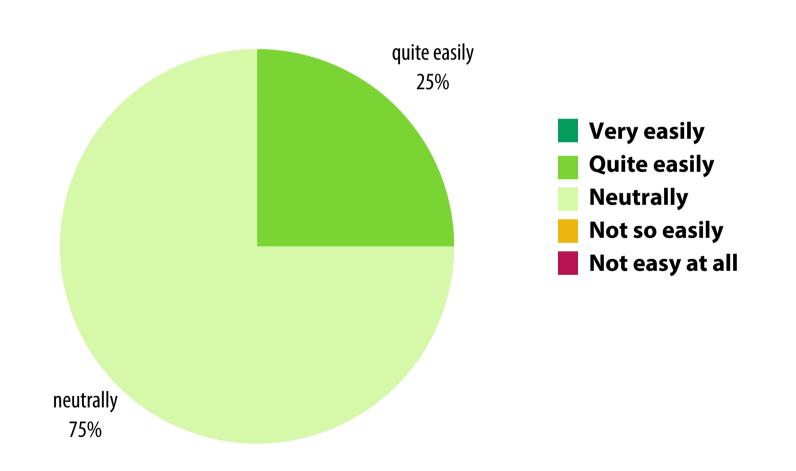

How did you like the excercises of the guidelines? Was the guidelines clear with the steps of the project?

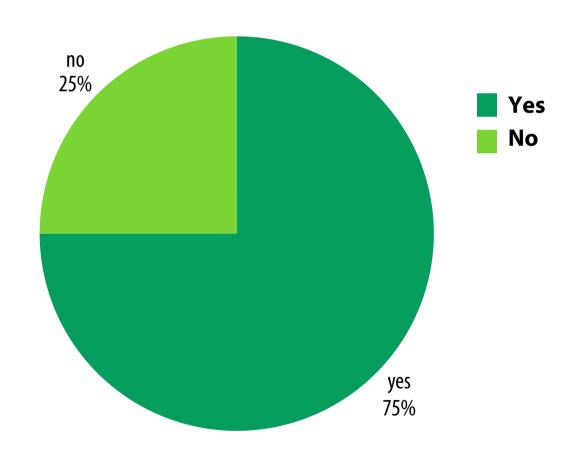

How easily this project is adapted to your target group?

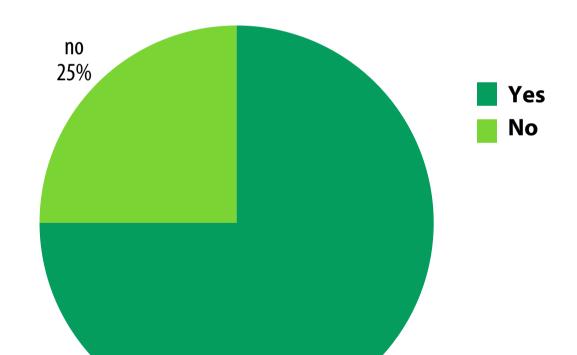

Do you rehearse creative skills yourself?

Did this give you inspiration to do creative skills independently?

yes 75%

Based on to this event, would you start similar project with your target group?

